TRAINERS AGAIN AT WORK

PREPARATION OF HORSES FOR SPRING RACING BEGINS AT LEXINGTON.

Barney Schreiber Visits Blue Grass Region and Is Delighted with Improvement in Appearance of His Stallion Sain at Idle Hour Farm.

Lexington, Ky., March 9.—Barney Schreiber was delighted with the appearance of his stailions Sain and Jack Atkin when he saw them at E. R. Bradley's Idle Hour Farm this week. "That daily exercise under saddle is a great thing for a stallion." said the well-known Missourian. "See what a wonderful change it has made in the appearance of Sain. I was always afraid to have him ridden every day, but Cliff Hammon has no timidity about stallions and has given Sain the sort of handling he needed. Jack Atkin has let down considerably and is broadening and hickening. He is a grander appearing horse than even I thought he would make."

Mr. Schreiber went direct from here to the Woodlands Farm near St. Louis, from which in a few weeks he will transfer all of his thoroughbreds, with the exception of three carloads that are to be shipped here, to his new farm near Sedalia. Mr. Schreiber sold Woodlands Farm during the latter part of 1911 and bought a cheaper place. He has about 120 broodmares and some eighty yearlings and approximately seventy-five horses of various ages for racing. Twenty-five of the broodmares will come here to be matted with Sain and Jack Atkin. At the same time ten or iwelve horses to be trained by Charles Brown will come to the Kentucky Association track. Trainer Brown now has up three of the Schreiber horses—Captain Carmody, Clara Atkin and O Bear—also a three-year-old. The last named two are maidens. They arrived Thursday from Lationia, where they wintered in charge of Dave Vittive. Mr. Schreiber has twenty horses at Latonia that are to go to the north-western circuit this spring.

Sanford C. Lyne, master of the Larchmont Stud and father of Jockey Lucien Lyne, who for several seasons has been successful in the saddle abroad, sent in from his Jassamine County farm this week to George Innes at the Kentucky Association track four promising two-year-olds. These youngsters were broken last fall by Charles Brown and, after they had shown good trials, were turned out for the winter. They have been named, as follows:

Skeets (out of compliment to jockey "Skeets Martin), ch. c, by Marta Santa—Pirate Polly.

Stockel (after the place at which jockey Lyne winters), b. c, by Orlando—Jessie Woodson (dam of Ben Loyal).

Rosemary, b. f, by Marta Santa—Country Fraud (dam of Compton).

Daisy Platt, ch. f, by Marta Santa—Black Banner (a young mare from the family of Domino).

The two fillies are eligible to the Breeders' Futurity that is to be the most valuable race of the year in Kentucky for two-year-olds and which will be an attractive feature of the spring meeting here.

Robert H. Anderson, the Scott County breeder, amounces the arrival this week of a sister to his Latonia Derby winner, Joe Morris, I is a bay filly by Peep o'Day—Hanoverine. Mr. Anderson says she is a handsome filly and he expects to keep and develop her to carry his own colors. Joe Morris is now in the stable of Jack Baker at the local track and is in spiendid health and bodily condition. He is cantering regularly.

Tommy Steele, who is en route to Belgium with his brother Bryan, is not under contract to Count Ribancourt, as is the younger boy, but he is going over on the chance that he will find a herth.

J. U. Strode was here this week and shipped five or six head of his horses to Louisville. They have heen turned out all winter at the fearms of G. D. Wilson and James Stevens.

John Stevens came to the Kentucky Association track this week with seven head of youngsters belonging to S

HOWARD LEWIS GETS A BARGAIN.

Philadelphian Reported to Have Paid Only $3,000 for Garry Herrmann and Ten Mares in Foal.

Lexington, Ky., March 9.—In local turf circles it is reported that Howard Lewis, of Philadelphia, paid only $3,000 for the stallion Garry Herrmann and the ten marcs, including the dam of the American Derby winner The Picket, that he bought last Tuesday at Louisville from the estate of the late Deitrich Meschendorf, and it is the opinion that he secured a big bargain.

ican Derby winner The Picket, that he bought last Tuesday at Louisville from the estate of the late Deitrich Meschendorf, and it is the opinion that he secured a big bargain.

"Why, the foals soon to come, for I understand all of the mares are to produce this spring, will be worth as much as that and probably more within a year." said Charles H. Haghes, who in the summer of 1900, as the representative of Charles Head Smith, of Chicago, gave Jake Markhein, of Cincinnati, $10,000 for Garry Herrmann and in March of 1901 sold him to Captain S. S. Brown for $21,000.

Garry Herrnann was bred by Kinzea Stone of Georgetown, and was foaled in 1898, being by the English stallion Esher, out of Silk Gown, by Long fellow, she being a member of the Picayune family, justify celebrated—though corduially disliked by followers of the English fashion in blood lines and devotees of the figure system in breeding.

In the summer of 1899 Garry Herrmann, then unamed, was sold for something like $550 to Louis V. Bell of New York, and was sent to Saratoga, broken, tried out and rejected by his owner, who put him into a weeding-out sale at Sheepshead Bay that fail Jake Markhein, who had been training for Mr. Bell, bought him for about $200. Shortly afterward at a sale here in Lexington his dam, Silk Gown, was gathered in by what was at that time known as the Breeders' Protective Association for $35, shipped to some point in the South and sold without pedigree or identification to some planter. She was regarded by the committee of breeders as unworthy to continue in the ranks of thoroughbred matrons, though she had already to her credit the stake winner Cyrus and the good winner Little Grand and a producing daughter in Pert, the dam of Pettigrew and Mountebank, the latter a winner for seven and being for his friend and neighbor. TWENTY-EIGHT ELIGIBLES FOR THE COMING KENTUCKY DERBY

Louisville, Ky., March 9.—The total number of entries for the New Louisville Jockey Club's stake events to be decided during the spring meeting at Churchill Downs, is 647 or, in round numbers, an average of eighty entries in each feature.

The management of the New Louisville Jockey Clab is gratified over this indication of such a healthy condition, because the entries represent, in number and class, the best horses in training on the Mamerican turf.

Nominations for the Clark Handicap, Louisville Handicap, Churchill Downs Handicap, Frank Fehr Stakes, Tobacco Stakes, Bashford Manor Stakes, Debutante Stakes, and Juvenile Stakes closed March 2. Entries for these events and final payments to qualify starters in the Kentucky Derby, made at Juarez and other distant points, delayed Lyman H. Davis, Secretary and Handicapper, in making up the final list for the reason that the mail did not reach him until today, sixty-three entries alone being received from turfmen at the Mexican track, The last to qualify for the thirty-eighth Kentucky Derby was R. F. Carman, with Sherlock Holmes, a brown colt by Inflexible—Orsina. Mr. Carman had one other entry in the Derby—Dr. Watson, But that colt is dead. Accompanying the Sherlock Holmes entry was a note from Mr. Carman saying that his eligible is a likely looking colt and in the opinion of the owner will have a chance, Mr. Carman for the Kentucky Oaks was Sister Florence, a bay of the Kentucky Oaks was Sister Florence, a Meridian.

The final qualifier for the thirty-eighth renewal of the Kentucky Oaks was Sister Florence, a bay filly by Ornament—St. Ursula, owned by Mrs. Homer H. Selby, whose stable is now at Juarez.

The number of eligibles for the Derby this spring is twenty-eight. Last year the total was thirty. The Oaks eligibles number twenty-five as against sixteen last year.

The complete list of eligibles for the Derby follows:

Since last year Worth has loomed as the favorite for the 1912 Kentucky Derby. His owner, when he bough him for $10,000, said that he confidently expected to win the Derby with him. The trainer of this colt is Frank M. Taylor, and he says that the juvenile champion of 1911 has filled out wonderfully and is the best three-year-old he knows of.

Worth has an enormous girth measure. His depth through the heart makes him look light behind, but when sized up closely, one finds that his back, loins, quarters, stifles and thighs are of big proportions. Plaudit, which was a cracking good race horse at all distances and sire of many stake winners, including King James, was made on the same pattern. As good a judge as S. C. Hildreth has pronounced Worth a marvelous horse.

Worth was foaled at the Woodburn Stud, Spring Station, Ky. It was at Woodburn that the immortal Lexington died in 1875. Worth started thirteen times last season, winning ten races. He closed a lighly creditable Season by defeating Harry K. Knapp's crack filly Sprite at Latonia in a private sweepstakes of $10.000 in which he ran six furlongs, with 118 pounds up, in 1:12%.

GERST RACER SCORES IN PRINCIPAL RACE OF PALMETTO PARK PROGRAM.

Run-ups Follow Decision of Four Selling Races-Charleston Track Again in Muddy Condition-Duval Regains Winning Form.

Charleston, S. C., March 9.—Changed track conditions, due to hard rain which fell this morning, resulted in numerous form upsets at Palmetto Park this afternoon and entailed extensive losses to the players who pinned their faith to the favorites. About the worst disappointment they experienced came with the running of the handicap at one mile and an eighth, in which Mockler and Jawbone were regarded as having the race between them. The latter brought up in third place and Jawbone finished out of the money, the purse going to the suddenly improved Duval, with Manager Mack the runner-up.

Both of these three-year-olds are in the Palmetto Derby and on their showing this afternoon should be formidable factors in the contest for that rich prize. Butwell handled Donau to advantage in the South Carolina Stakes, which served as the feature of the card of seven races. He kept the Gerst racer in a contending position until straightened for home, when he brought him up with a rush that carried him past Helen Barbee, and Bonau ultimately won by a comfortable margin. This race marked the first defeat sustained by Amoret at this meeting. On the strength of six impressive wins here, the Ray horse was naturally looked upon as the likely winner, but after flattering his backers for the first half mile, he began weakening and was beaten for third place by Montcalm.

Seventeen layers operated this afternoon. The mild weather brought out a bumper crowd to witness the sport. There were lively sessions in the paddock after every selling race. Four of the winners were bid up and one changed hands, while another lorse was claimed. Morristown, winner of the second race, was repurchased by his former owner, J. C. Milam, for $1,600. The colt was entered for $1,100 and ran in J. L. Helland's name, the latter having purchased him at private sale from Sam Louis, who took him from Mr. Singer of the second race, was repurchased by his former owner, J. C. Milam, for $1,600. The colt was entered price of $1,200 by Sam Louis, but was retained by

GEORGE ODOM DECLINES TEMPTING OFFER.

Baron Oppenheimer Tenders Position of Trainer to Skillful Young American.

El Paso, Tex., March 9.—A drizzling rain fell all afternoon, but it was hardly enough to settle the dust and did not make the Juarez track at all slow. The attendance kept up to the usual good standard. There was a wholesale lot of scratching in several of the races, but the finishes were close and exciting. Jockey Gross carried off the riding honors by pilloting to victory the only two mounts he had.

The fifth race brought together a fair band of three-year-olds and Tourist, from the stable of G. M. Odom, was installed the favorite. He was slightly interfered with after the start, Florence Roberts forcing him to lose his stride. She then opened a lead that Tourist was just unable to overcome, winning by a nose.

J. W. Fuller, the wealthy Texas turfman, shipped his entire string, composed of twelve head, to his ranch at Wills Point. It is the intention of Mr. Fuller to remain here until the end of the present racing season.

George M. Odom, the capable young Kentucky trainer, received a cablegram today from Baron Oppenheimer in Germany offering him an appointment to train his big string. James McCornick, his present trainer, has been stricken with a serious illness. The cablegram asked him to state his terms and that he would have forty-five head of horses, with the two American jockeys, T. Ricc and George Archibald, riding for, him. Mr. Odom's interests in this country are too great to be quickly disposed of and he cabled banck, with thanks, that he declined to accept the offer.

R. J. Farris seat Ben Uncas and an unnamed two-year-old filly named Little Cleo here this morning. Ike Striker has purchased Nila.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Lieutenant Rockwell, who won many of the mili-tary races run in this country during 1910 and 1911, has been appointed to the personal staff of President Taft, to relieve Major Butt, who is on sick leave.

Frank Jay Gould's racing manager has engaged Charles Childs to ride Mr. Gould's stable of horses this year. J. Reiff rode for Mr. Gould in 1911, but has now been engaged by Baron Gourgaud. Mr. Gould's stable this year consists of twenty-eight horses, including the four-year-old Comburg, said to be the best of his age in France.

He started only twice as a three-year-old for Captain Brown, winning at one mile and a sixteenth and being unplaced to Silverdale in the Premier Stakes. Shortly afterward he went amiss and had to be retired. About the time Captain Brown pald $21,006 for this horse, an extended but unavailling search throughout the Southland for the recovery of his dam was made by the breeders who had thrown he into the diseard.

Garry Herrmann had his home at Capt. S. S. Brown's Senorita Stud until that famous turfman's demise, and for a couple of years afterward, Capt. It was the performances of Governor Gray as a two-year-old and his promise for the Derbys of 1911 that caused the late Deitrich Meschendorf to send an agent to New Brunswick in the fall of 1910 and at a cost of about $1,000 bring the son of Esher and Silk Gown back to Kentucky.

PLUNGE

on THURSDAY, MARCH 14, on a horse which my connections will start on that day. While this will prove one of the most sensational coups of the season, it will also be a rare piece of stable information for the racing public. While I cannot, owing to certain promises, say too much regarding this exclusive coup which my connections will pull off, I am in a position to let you in on a REAL LIVE SLEEPER that will be at good odds, should those in the deal keep the secret. To maintain and make good my guarantee to the STABLE I want henest people who will remit to me day after race the profits of a $10 bet to send me their name and address. I want only those who can appreciate the chance to be declared in on something exceptional and who will make good after it wins, to take advantage of Thursday's BIG COUP. Address at once, if you want one of the best and surest winners you ever backed.

JACK DALY 107 Chambers St., New York City, N.Y.

NOTICE!

$10—BALANCE OF CHARLESTON MEETING-$10

I have not sent any Wires out the past few weeks, I have not sent any Wires out the past few weeks, but I have made arrangements to handle the balance of the Charleston Meeting. I am making the above Special Rate of Ten Dollars for the rest of the meeting and, with fast track conditions, I will put over Two Good Things the coming week, next Thursday and Saturday. The service on this rate will consist of Three or Four each week that will be sent after the money. This offer will close April 19. Subscribers for this service can have my Special Occasional from Juarez Free if they so desire. Rush Your Subscription and Get in on Some Genuine Track Information at a Very Low Cost. No Single Wires Sent on This Service and No Notice Taken of Communications Unless Accompanied by the Money, as I am Paying Big Money to Get This Information.

... "Completed Maich 1, 1912" and now ready for "You" if you want "Winners," I have not studied the "Dope" for the past 12 years for nothing. "Sutton's New 1912 Handbook System" is my "Crowning Work" and it's an "Entirely New Winning System" and for men who play the "Handbooks" and demand "Big Returns" on their investments. This new system is played on strictly a "Flat Bet" and you make your selections "Instantly" from a glance at the "Entries" and its strictly a "One Horse Bet" and you always play that "One Horse" to "Win." It does not give foo many bets, but "Just Enough" to suit you exactly, and you can play it "Successfully" with as little as $25 capital and "I Guarantee It." There are no "Rules" to confuse you and no other "Information" needed besides the selection of the proper horses and you make your daily selection "Instantly" (no figuring or work to do et all). If not found by you to be "A Big Winner" and exactly as represented—then demand the return of your money and you will receive it. What greater "Sport" can be found in this world than to give the "Handbooks" a real good "Walloping?" You can do it to your "Satisfaction" with this "New 1912 System." Frice $20. Terms $5 Cash and balance of $15 in $5 weekly payments (This casy payment plan puts the system within the reach of all.) Positively no other terms to anyone. Notice—Don't be "Fooled" into thiak ing that you can get my "Genuine System" except direct from me.
